“ Pops will sadly be missed. I met Pops 23 years ago and he has always made me feel like his daughter without the in-law attached. Everytime I would see him he would always say there's my Jo and smile/hug me. Thank you God for sharing this dear man with all of us and we know he is in great hands up there with you and other family memebers that have went home.

“ *Dear Jo Ann
I am sorry for your lost. I did not know Henry. But I to have lost love ones and miss them just as I know you miss him.
I wanted to share these scriptures with you (John 11:11,25&24. Jesus Christ raised Lazarus from the sleep of death And I hope you will find comfort in knowing that He will also do the same for Henry. These scriptures helped to dry some of my tears. May they do the same for you,*

“ Dear Lethia Shepherd,
Sometimes when we lose the ones we love, it seems it is hard to go on. The pain and sorrow seems too much to bare. I did not know Lewis, but I too have lost love ones in death and I miss them as I know you miss Lewis. Jesus Christ who wept when Lazarus fell asleep in death knows your sorrow. John 11:11,25&44. May these scriptures comfort you as they helped to dry some of my tears.
Sincerely,

“ Sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy that we can never get use to. In my times of sorry I have found comfort in John 5:28,29 which says that one day we will see our loved ones again.
