“ I was Herbert's sixth grade teacher. He used to come to my house after school and we would bake cookies. I kept in touch with him by letter over the years and he visited me a couple times. He once brought me a plant for Mother's Dad. Herbert was a sweet young man who didn't get to live up to his potential. He was a special person.

“ Herb was a customer, neighbor and a Friend. Herb was a big man with an even bigger heart. He grew up in an environment that had no heart. I can only imagine what he could have achieved given the opportunity in a better enviornment.
I can close my eyes now and I can very clearly hear his voice, if you knew "H" than you knew he had a comforting voice. The kind of voice that would always bring a smile to your face no matter your mood. He was always sincere and compansionate. He will be missed dearly by everyone at Michigan Window Tinting and we send our deepest simpathay to all of his family and friends. He will live on forever in our hearts and memories. God Bless!
