Herman Hairston "Tony" was born August 7, 1950 in Crawford Mississippi. He was the sixth child of eleven children born to the union of the late James and Mattie Hairston. Many knew him as "He-Man" to others as "Reb or Bird" and most recently "Pa-Pa" by his youngest granddaughter, Selah. Each nickname stuck after significant events that occurred in his lifetime. Herman Hairston started his career with General Motors in 1971, he was a dedicated employee until he later retired after 35 years of service in June of 2006. Herman was known for his craftsmanship, and was a master of many things. He had a heart of being an Entrepreneur as he started restoring several homes and acquired many rental properties as a result. Herman loved to grill his famous ribs and enjoyed hosting family and friends for a good ole' "cookout". He loved to travel and was always up for a road trip. Herman was also a member of The Southern Gentleman's Social Club and the United Van Club of Flint.

“ At the drop of a hat Herm' could show up at the door step and good times would unfold. Just as he did for our wedding on Nantucket Island. It made the day and the event more than memorable. There was always a good word and a smile from Herm'. My mother never said but amongst the nieces and nephews she had her favorites and Herman was definitely one. Our unbounded sympathies to all. Rest in peace.
