Flint Park Blvd., and may be viewed from 12:00 PM-6:00 PM Thursday.

Herman Roger Harris was born on April 20, 1946, in Dickson, Tennessee, to the late Roger and Madgeline Harris. He peacefully transitioned from this life on October 13, 2025, at McLaren Hospital in Flint, Michigan, surrounded by loved ones.

Herman received his early education in Dickson public schools and graduated from Hampton High School. With a deep sense of duty and service, he enlisted in the United States Army, where he proudly served in Vietnam. After completing his Army service, he continued his military journey in the United States Air Force, where he was stationed in Dover, Delaware. It was during this time that he met the love of his life, Melva. Their union was blessed with a son, Dana Lamont, in 1974.

In 1975, Herman and his family relocated to Flint, Michigan. He went on to work at General Motors, where he dedicated 31 years of service before retiring. Herman was known for his strong work ethic, his loyalty to family and friends, and his generous spirit.

Beyond his professional life, Herman was a true outdoorsman who loved hunting, fishing, camping, and spending time in his yard. He also enjoyed watching football and cherished his daily conversations with cousins, fellow veterans, and lifelong friends. Those who knew him will remember his warm heart, quick wit, and unwavering love for family.

Herman was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, and friend. His legacy of love, strength, and kindness will live on in the hearts of all who knew him.

Herman Roger Harris leaves to cherish his memory: his beloved wife, Melva; son, Dana; granddaughters, Zyria and Yasmin; great-granddaughter, Zoe'; sisters, Gaynell Daniels and Beatrice Williams; brother, Bobby Dean (Regina); sisters-in-law, DeVoya Johnson and Wanda Smith; brothers-in-law, Vandy (Lucille), Greg, and Di Toulson; and a host of loving nieces, nephews, extended family, and dear friends.

Herman's life was a beautiful example of dedication, love, and faith. Though he will be deeply missed, his legacy will continue to inspire all who were blessed to know him.

“ *Harris Family,
Melva,
May God bless you, grant you peace, and surround your grieving heart with love.
Praying faith and God's promise of Eternal Life, strengthen you, as you reflect on, John 11:25-26.
Prayerfully, cherished memories of Brother Herman, will comfort and sustain you and family.
Our deepest sympathy,
Ella & Mitchell Teamer*
