I met Herman at Mesa Public Schools in Mesa AZ last year. I went to work to their and one of the first people I spoke with was Herman. Each morning we spoke and chatted for a few minutes before starting our work. I had not seen Herman for a few days and asked about him. I was saddened to learn of his passing.

"Your lost friends are not dead, but gone before, Advanced a stage or two upon that road Which you must travel in the steps they trod."

Rest in peace, my friend.

"Because of God's love and mercy, you can face tomorrow". I am sending my most deepest condolence to you, Sis. Windom, and to your family. I've worn the shoes you now wear, and I can say that the Lord will never leave nor forsake you. Deacon Herman was indeed a friend of mine and the late Bishop Thomas H. Young. I will never forget the New Orleans convention and how we had such an enjoyable encounter seeing each other. Deacon Herman was a joy to be around and to know. He will forever be in your heart, and God only wants the best in His Kingdom. Be strong in the Lord. May God strengthen and keep you in His care.

*With love and prayers,
Evangelist Janet M. Young
Grace Temple Apostolic Church, Phoenix, AZ.*
