Mr. Herod Jackson Jr. was born May 8, 1941 in Itta Bena, Mississippi, to parents Herod Jackson Sr. and Mrs. Julia (Russell) Jackson. Herod was the oldest son of seven children. In the early 1940's the Jackson family moved to East St. Louis, IL. Herod graduated from East St. Louis Public Schools. As a young man Herod married Jacqueline Rogers this union produced five loving children, Kevin, Rochelle, Teresa, Courtney and LeArthur.

In 1966 Herod relocated to Flint Michigan to begin his employment with General Motors where he remained gainfully employed for 41 1/2 years. Herod was a hard worker that never missed one of day of work, he happily retired in 2007. On February 6, 1979 Herod married the Love of his Life Rita (Simpson) Mabry. For over 42 years he passionately loved and adored her, lovingly referring to her as his Queen and Baby Girl. From their union Herod also inherited three loving bonus kids, Jeffery, Stephanie and Jerron.

In 1995 under the leadership of the late Bishop Odis A. Floyd, Herod rededicated his life to Christ, he joined and remained a faithful member of New Jerusalem Full Gospel Baptist Church. Herod lived his life by Faith! His mottos for life were "Keep the Faith" "Stay prayed up and don't trust no (Beep) body, but God"

Herod was an Impeccably Superior dresser! He was always clean from head to toe. He would only wear the best of the best. He was always dapper and had so much Swag!

Herod was also a lover of Jazz music; every day he would spend hours listening to Jazz. His favorite jazz artists were Miles Davis, John Coltrane, and Marion Meadows. Herod would fall asleep next to his Queen most nights listening to smooth Jazz.

Herod was an early riser, up by 5:30 am starting his day with his beloved dog "Baby Boy". He was an avid fitness buff, he worked out daily, walking on the treadmill, bike riding and doing hundreds of sit-ups daily...He was No Average 80-year-old!! He spent his days watching CNN, MSNBC and ESPN, he loved keeping up on current events and world news. He enjoyed watching college football especially when Michigan vs Michigan State played. Herod had a straight no chaser personality and those that knew him loved and appreciated that about him. He had a wonderful sense of humor and would often crack a joke or make a statement and then crack up laughing at his own jokes. Herod loved life and he lived his well.

He commanded the aisle with that walk as he went around to put in offering. I'll miss that. He stood tall and always full of style. Yours is a love relationship I admire. You set a standard for us to follow. Prayers can definitely reach further and any words we can offer so I'll be sending them up often for you. May the God of all peace comfort your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus. We love you. The Allens: Henderson, Ketesa, Jayden and Jordan*
