“ Hervey can be described with one word - gentleman! My memories include sitting at a variety of school functions for our sons including those cold April baseball games. My deepest sympathies to David and all of his family. May today’s sorrow be wrapped in thoughts of his kindnesses, quiet words and the gift he brought to those he crossed paths with.

“ Carolyn (James) Hudson sends our sincere and heartfelt condolences to the entire family of our beloved brother in Christ, Mr. Hervey Alene Taylor Jr.

We all attended Bethlehem Temple Church Of The Apostolic Faith; at 918 Spencer St.

When we were children, Brother Taylor's home was the only home that I could go and visit (Aileen) sometimes.

I thank God for the life he lived and the love and legacy he passed on to his family.

My siblings and I always remember him being a police officer.

He was a wonderful man.

Brother Taylor will truly be missed.

I'm praying and asking God to bless his family.

May God continue to comfort and strengthen his beloved wife.

I love you Evangelist Aileen Spence.

Your friend and sister in Christ.

Mother Carolyn (Cardwell) Hudson

God bless you.
