“ *My condolences to the Brisker family.
Hiram and I met at Lowell Jr. High and continued on through our Central days.*

Although I moved from Flint in 1965 I would catch up with Hiram at our class reunions. Yes, jazz was discussed and our audio systems were compared. Each new collectible vinyl or cd was reviewed by us in the short time the reunions allowed. Great stuff.

“ Mr. Brisker was my next door neighbor on Roselawn. I called him, "Brisco". I was very fond of him and his family. As a child I always knew I was welcome & loved in their home. I will never forget the kindness and all those sweet juicy pears he would give me from the back yard. He will always be remembered.
