After graduation, he began working for Freedom To Work program where he proudly retired. Shortly after, Homer became self-employed customizing bracelets that were based upon your request, or he would create special bracelets that he felt fit your personality. In his free time, he enjoyed dancing, playing video games, listening to music, arts & crafts, collecting hot wheels and bowling.

Homer also enjoyed traveling to Miami, watching the Detroit Lions and talking on the phone. Most importantly he enjoyed celebrating his birthday and spending time with family eating good food.

Mr. Homer C. Winfrey leaves to cherish his memory: youngest brother, Xavier Ivy (Angie) Winfrey; niece, Ivyonna McQuarter-Winfrey; nephew, Xavier Winfrey Jr.; a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Homer was preceded in death by his parents, Homer Winfrey Sr. and Sarah
