Floyd was preceded in death by parents; RC Clack Sr. and Thelma Hollingsworth Clack Dightman; grandparents, Floyd and Ida Clack; sister, Nadine Woodard; aunts, Alberta Williams and Ora Long; uncles, Amos Clack and Hosea Clack. Born in Houston, Texas in 1940 and raised in the close-knit community of Trinidad, Texas, Floyd was deeply shaped by the values of hard work, faith, and service to other principles instilled in him from an early age by his family and community. These core values would remain the bedrock of his character and guide his every endeavor throughout a life defined by leadership, resilience, and an unwavering dedication to uplifting those around him. A proud graduate of Texas Southern University (1965), Floyd furthered his commitment to justice and public service by attending the Thurgood Marshall School of Law, and received a Master of Arts Degree from Eastern Michigan University (1972). His passion for education and equity led him to begin his professional journey in the Houston, Texas Public Schools, where he worked tirelessly to support students and create opportunities for academic growth and personal development. Floyd’s journey would later take him to Wisconsin, where he joined the Federal Government’s Job Corps programming initiative focused on providing young people with the education and vocational training necessary for success. His work there demonstrated his steadfast belief in the power of second chances and his lifelong dedication to opening doors for others. Eventually, Floyd made his home in Flint, Michigan, where he continued his legacy of service by building an extraordinary career rooted in compassion, justice, and an unwavering commitment to the public good. Whether mentoring young leaders, advocating for underserved communities, or offering steady guidance to friends and neighbors, Floyd remained a pillar of strength, humility, and purpose. It was in Flint that he met the love of his life, Brenda Jones, who later became Brenda Jones Clack. Together, they built a life dedicated to service and raised two children, Michael and Mia Clack, instilling in them the same values of integrity, resilience, and community. His life stands as a testament to what is possible when one leads with heart, integrity, and an unshakable belief in the dignity and potential of every human being. Floyd began his professional journey as an educator and guidance counselor in the Flint Community Schools, at Flint Northern High School. A steadfast advocate for young people, he empowered countless students to believe in their potential and pursue paths of purpose, which led to him founding the Flint Youth Leadership Institute. His deep belief in education as a transformative force for individuals and communities became the cornerstone of his life's work. His path soon led him into public office, where he served with honor and distinction on the Flint City Council where founded the Gun Amnesty-Gun BuyBack Program, and the Genesee County Board of Commissioners he served as: Chairman of Human Services Committee, Chairman of Equity and Diversity Subcommittee, and a member of the Board of Directors of Valley Area Agency on Aging, Genesee County Metropolitan Alliance, Section 32 (Environmental), 641 Solid Waste Planning Commission, Violence Prevention Coalition, JTPA CEO, Mass Transportation Authority, Board of Health, Greater Flint Health Coalition, Equity and Diversity Subcommittee, and New Paths Board of Directors. In 1983, Floyd was elected to the Michigan House of Representatives, where he served from 1983 to 1996, as a State Representative he served as Chairman of the House Standing Committee on Civil Rights and Women's Issues, Standing Committee on Committee on Corrections, Ad Hoc Special Committee on Alternatives for High Risk Students, Majority Caucus Second Vice Chair, Majority Vice Chair - House Standing Committee on Civil Rights, Majority Vice-Chair of the Committee on Urban Affairs, Vice-Chair of House Democratic Black Caucus, Elected as Majority Whip, of House Democratic Party. He was a member of the Corrections, Conservation, Environment and Great Lakes, Civil Rights, Constitution and Women's Issues Committee, the Labor, Tourism and Recreation, Civil Rights, Corporations & Finance Committee, Corrections, Insurance, Mental Health Committee, and the Colleges and Universities, Constitutional Revision & Women's Rights, Education, Labor, and Urban Affairs Committee. As State Representative, Floyd Clack earned a reputation as a thoughtful, principled, and visionary legislator. His work centered on advancing equitable public education, supporting working families, and advocating for sustainable development in Michigan's urban communities. He was instrumental in crafting and championing legislation that increased school funding, expanded access to youth programs, and improved educational resources for underserved communities. He was especially known for his calm, measured approach, his ability to bring people together across party lines, and his unwavering dedication to his constituents in Flint and Genesee County. His time in the legislature was marked by a deep sense of duty to those often left out of the political conversation, and his voice carried weight as someone who had lived the realities his policies aimed to address. Floyd's influence extended well beyond public office. He was a mentor, a friend, and a pillar of integrity who remained deeply rooted in his community. Whether counseling a young student, advising a new leader, or offering wisdom at the dinner table, he led with humility, warmth, and a servant's heart. His service led to him receiving many awards, honors and recognitions such as: the 1988 Recipient David McMahon Award - Michigan Education Association, Stewart R. Mott Leadership Award, Key to the City of Flint and Council Resolution - Flint City Council, Leadership Award - Flint NAACP, Woodrow and Reta Stanley Lifetime Service Award, and the Man of the Year - Flint Inner City Lions Club.

Though he has departed this world, Floyd's legacy lives on in every life he touched—in the students he guided, the laws he helped shape, the neighborhoods he uplifted, and the future leaders he inspired. He leaves behind not only a record of service, but a call to action: to lead with purpose, to serve with humility, and to never stop fighting for a better tomorrow.

The family encourages those who knew and loved him to honor his memory by continuing the work he began—advocating for justice, investing in education, and building stronger families and more inclusive communities.

“ Mr. Clack was a mentor to me, and I am sad that I was not able to share in his homecoming service. As an EMU alumni, I graduated just after his tenure, he was always connected to my family via my mother's professional work with the legislature. He LOVED Flint!! He spoke with me many times and encouraged me as a young professional early in my career. He will be missed and forever honored.

MR. FLOYD CLACK... ❤️👍❤️👍
A "VIKING FOR LIFE" Mr. Clack!!*

“Honorable, Mr. Floyd Clack.. affectionately, known as Mr. Clack. Thank God for using you for His glory! Although, I didn't get it then, I'm reminded, with tears in my eyes and understanding, what you wanted for your students! Not just the economic side of life but, with all that it entitles. My God today, I only wished, that the brown & colorful children of today, could've have been so blessed to have had the opportunity to be "taught" by one of the greatest teachers in my time. "Many of us.. didn't get the ball that, you were throwing our way then but, believe me, I did to learn to "catch the ball!" Ironically, I find myself being a teacher without credentials. But, I'm ok with that because.. when it comes from God, its sown in the fiber of your spirit for a life time. Thank you, Sir Clack, for being that source of sowing into each of us faithfully, with your prayers, faithfulness and diligence for your giving gifts & talent. Mrs. Clack, Mia, Micheal, and your beloved grandchildren, please know that your pain is our pain too! We are praying with and for you all, with God's Will, you'll find His, comfort, strength and peace during this most difficult time. Glory be to God, Mr. Clack, your living was not in vain.. God had His way with you, I'm but one of them, whom you had a complete impact in our life! Rest peacefully in paradise.. Good & faithful servant, we miss you already. I know you'll wear your "crown" well. Much 💙💙.. Sincerely, Teresa Re-Re Anthony-Johnson, Bro. Willie Jr. & Rev. Red and our entire family.

“ Brother Floyd Clack benefitted our Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, in addition to educational and political communities. He welcomed us into his home and into his home church. His calm, reassuring leadership style was that of a true statesman. Sincere condolences are sent to Silhouette Clack and their family.

Eternal God, we praise you for the great company of all those who have finished their course in faith and now rest from their labor. We praise you for those dear to us whom we name in our hearts before you. Especially we praise you for Floyd Clack whom you have graciously received into your presence.

To him, grant your peace. Let perpetual light shine upon him; and help us believe where we have not seen, that your presence may lead us through our years, and bring us at last with him into the joy of your home not made with hands but eternal in the heavens, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

“ Mr. Clack, I wanted to say.. thank you for being whom, God called you to be!! Sir, we'll never forget how you express to us, as mere knuckle-heads during our high-school days, the importance of our, economic development! Some, understood the ball you were throwing us to catch, while many did not attempt to even go for the ball. Although, many years have since passed.. I get it now!! I find myself explaining to my children, how truly fortunate we were to have one of the great of the greatest, African American Teachers in our life time! Sir, you were one of our blessed greatest! Mother Clack, Mia, and Micheal, along with your dearest grandchildren, we're all deeply sadden with you. Please, know that we're praying with and for your comfort, strength and peace during this trying time. May God, keep each of you in His perfect will and surround you with the same love, you have so unselfishly share with.. so many of us ❤️❤️ Thank you...

Mr. Clack, JOB WELL DONE, GOOD & FAITHFUL SERVANT of God and all of us.

Respectfully, Teresa Anthony-Johnson & the entire class of "Flint Northern Vikings" 1979*

State Representative, teacher, leader, family member, friend to the State of Michigan, your uncle, cousin, and always a brother most of all Moses and a man of God. Mr. Clack wore all the hats and a father to us all. The community of Flint has lost a man that made miracles happened. He changed the lives of everyone he and his entire family. He love his community and the greatest leader to us all. He was a master teacher about business matters and housing. He fed the black community all year round and his senior citizen's Thanksgiving dinner will never be forgotten. God has called you home our dear friend you have received your heavenly reward at the welcome table and now it is time for you to be served.

You have my deepest and most heartfelt condolences during this difficult time. Mr. Clack was truly an extraordinary man whose life exemplified what it means to serve and uplift our community. His compassion, wisdom, and unwavering dedication have left a powerful legacy that will continue to inspire generations.

It was an absolute honor and blessing to have known Mr. Clack, and I am immensely grateful for all the invaluable lessons and examples of grace and leadership that I gleaned from his life's work. May his spirit and profound impact live forever in our hearts and in the countless lives he touched.

“Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters, since you know that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord Christ you are serving.” Colossians 3:23-24 (NIV)

“ My heartfelt sympathy to the family of Mr. Clack...Mr. Clack was one of my favorite teachers at Flint Northern. He taught me several life lessons that I use to this day. He played a significant role with my husband and I being together with the talks we had back in 1978..he was definitely a very respected man and a mentor to many...I appreciate the impact he had on my life...Mr. Clack will be missed 🙏🙏🙏🥹

“ Lord strengthen the family and friends during this difficult time. He was so nice and I will never forget his White House story he told our class about. It was so hilarious and I never forgot the address to the White House 🇺🇸🇺🇸. I learned so much from Mr Clack and I still have a strong passion for Govt and politics. RIP my favorite teacher.

“ To the Clack Family.

My Heart is hurting. I am so sorry for your loss. Mr. Clack was one in a million. He was me and my sister's Social Studies teacher, and my mom use to give him greens out of her garden. I will always remember him for the things he taught me. He will be sorely missed.
