“ To Mr. Jessie Blair :

I am deeply sorry to hear of the loss of your brother and my dear friend of so many years. Even though it has been many years since I saw him , I can't forget the good times we shared as a family back in the day (Josephine St.and beyond). God takes care of all of His children and Horace was a testament to that. We have all moved on in our paths of life but I have never forgotten him. As the aunt of Ricky, Jimmel, and Marquita, I send my condolences to all.

RIP Horace

“ *The tide recedes, but leaves behind bright seashells in the sand
The sun goes down, but leaves its gentle warmth throughout the land
The music stops, but still we hear the echo of its sweet refrain
For every joy that passes, something beautiful remains Into each life some rain will fall, Choose to remember the good times had by all*

You take a piece of my heart with you. RIP. ...Mary Ann Blair

“ After loosing touch for so many years, we finally saw each other again this past summer. We talked and laughed about old times...Josephine Street! I am so grateful that I was able to share that time with you. The memory of your smile will last my lifetime. I love you Uncle, I will miss you dearly and I will see you again.

“ *My condolences to the family of Mr, Blair.
Death of a loved one can be difficult and not easy to get through, but through prayer and Gods word it helps us to endure at (1 Thessalonians :4:13,14,) you can find real hope and the strength to keep going and to endure this difficult time.*
