“ Bro. Aytes will be missed by so many who crossed his path, he had the kindest heart and the most trustworthy disposition that made you feel so comforted. We will miss him beyond words because when you thought of Foss Avenue you thought of him and his knowledge and wisdom and his way of using he spoken word was so amazing. To my Family he was more then a person we knew we thought of him as a part of our Family and was like a God Father to us all. We will miss you our Dear Friend but the many memories over the years will live on in our hearts. We know we will see you again in paradise because you have gained your reward. The Jones-Family

Remembering, your dad's strength, passion, peace and his love..for his, Savior and God as, his guide..ponder on those things, and you too, will find great peace, joy, unspeakable joy!! Knowing, to be absent from, his body, he's now..in the presence, with our, Lord. May the grace of God, give you (all) comfort & the strength needed, during this time. With, hear felt sympathy..Sincerely, Re-Re and the entire, Anthony family. ❤️❤️❤️🙏🙏🙏
