Mrs. Irna Mae (Armstrong) Prince was born December 2, 1931 in Como, Mississippi, the daughter of Moses and Betty (Robinson) Armstrong. She married the love of her life, Roy Gilbert Prince, February 18, 1954. To this union, seven children were born. Irna loved her children dearly and supported them in every way, especially after the passing of her husband. She was employed at Martin Luther Nursing Home in South Haven, MI, as a CNA for over 30 years. Among her other interests and hobbies included gardening, sewing, quilting, cooking, and singing with her sisters in a group called The Armstrong Sisters. Irna enjoyed spending time with her family and was known for her contagious laugh. She cared deeply for her grandchildren and raised a number of them in her home.

Mrs. Irna Mae Prince leaves to cherish her memory: four daughters, Eunice
