“ My dear brother,

While you were here on earth, God kept you wrapped in his arms. Now in heaven you are wrapped in the shadow of His wings. You no longer have to suffer because your soul is at peace and your spirit will remain with me, just like mothers'. My grandson, your great-nephew Shawn, affectionately called you "The Champ." While you were ill you lived up to that name by holding on for as long as you did. I will never forget the good times we had in Christ, especially when we were visiting different churches trying to find a church home. We both found our places of worship on earth, but now you are present with the Lord in his eternal sanctuary. I have so many fond memories of you, such as you living with me on and off. During those times you would come to the door and say "Honey I'm home!" which always put a smile on my face. That same smile will remain. My precious brother Leon, you hold a special place in my heart and I will forever love you. Even in death you will remain "The Champ."

*Your Sister,
Barb*

“ Renew Me In Thy grace My spirit bows in humble praise; My soul rejoices deep. The fear that linger in my heart I give unto Thy keep All that over was and is, Of that what's yet to be, I count today as mine, deae Lord, And leave tomorrow to Thee.
