“ To the family of Ivy...

I was very saddened to learn of the passing of your loved one. I first met Ivy when she lived on Bray Road. She rode with me back and forth to work at the court in Burton. I always enjoyed her company. She had a great smile and bubbly personality.

“ To the family members of Ivy...I?m praying for you continually. I first met Ivy at church where we both attended. She was a new member at the time and I made my acquaintance known to this beautiful person who smile lit up room. We started conversing and we found out we both had something in common which was singing. Ivy later joined our church choir and we all had the pleasure of hearing her minister in song. Each time we communicated, I always enjoyed our fellowship and her encouraging words she would convey. Ivy was truly a cheerful giver and loved to be a blessing to others.

“ Peaches was one of the sweetest people I have ever met. Always smiling, never a harsh word to say about anyone. The nickname Peaches suited her so well because she was a sweetie. I know God has received her sweet soul in heaven I pray that this will bring you some comfort She was well loved.

“ TO The family of Peaches. Peaches would always check on my mom when she hadn't heard from her to make sure she was alright. She would tell me slow down and take care of myself that showed me what a caring and passionate person she was I will miss her calling telling me Gerri your mom's ready. When I heard of her death I went into shock. Remember God will see you through these dark days ahead. You have my prayers today, tomorrow and the days to come.

“ To the family of Peaches Clemons, I am sorry for your lost, I pray that God will continue to comfort you during this time of sorrow.

I have known Peaches for the pass seven years. She was my barber, she would cut my hair every other week. She had no problem cutting my hair as short as I wanted it. She then invited me to her church which she loved. I am going to miss our weekly talks. I know that she is in heaven with our Father.

“ My prayers are with the family. I met Peaches some years ago. She was my hair stylist for a while. I loved going to her shop and talking to her. We shared some very good times talking and laughing. She was so encouraging and had a beautiful smile. She talked about Marcus and her family everytime I was in the shop. She will be greatly missed.
