“ I can write A book on how awesome, and how great you are, and just knowing you and the love you had for family. Your memories will forever live on in my heart I still feel you with me like you never left. I still feel the essence of of you. I couldn't have asked for A more greater grandfather because you was A perfect one. Though my heart aches, but these memories will always keep you alive for me. You we're A honorable man and A man of his word and tough but easy to love. I won't forget all the life lessons you taught me. Or all the but whoppings you put to my back side. I know you only did it because you loved me. And to make me A better man and I thank you for that. It's has truly been A pleasure getting to know love and grow with you. And thank you for being so tough on me you helped shap the person I am today. I'm going to miss your wonderful cooking your laughter, your smile, and just being around you. I can here your echo's in A quiet room letting me know your still here with me in spirit. Thank you grandpa for being there for me when I needed you and when I didn't. You was still there, and there is not enough thank you's or appreciations I could give you because you deserve more. And I leave you with these final words you haven't seen the last of me. But until we meet again I will forever be yelling to the sky I love you always and forever ❤️ give granny A kiss for me. You grandson Joe and I will forever carry you with me. And your memories will always and forever live on. Long Live A King and Rest In Paradise.
