“ My beautiful niece Emma (Shang), I still can't believe my great niece Jackie is no longer with us, but I know she is in a better place, smiling as usual. My heart is broken because Jackie was so very special to me. I am so sorry I will not be with you all when the family shares in a "Wonderful Celebration of A Beautiful Life Lived" farewell service for Jackie. I pray that the family's faith will feel God's love and comfort daily until the pain lessen; to begin remembering all the beautiful memories that will forever live in our hearts of someone who was such a Free Spirit....Living life to the fullest everyday.

“ My heartfelt condolences go out to the Palmer family in the loss of your wife Jacqueline. I always will remember her spunk and her inspiration and how she changed the lives of others who were living with a l vad. I met Jacqueline on the l vad support group where she made me laugh daily and nothing stopped her. She lived her life to the fullest and I will miss her is an understatement. Heaven has gained a beautiful angel. Fly high Jacqueline

“ Randysha & Family,

We know that no words can help ease the pain and loss that you are feeling right now. You are in our every prayer and thought. May fond memories of your grandmother bring you comfort during this difficult time. I will forever remember the summer with you and your grandmother at Higgins Lake... first time every jet skiing or tubing. Please accept our deepest condolences to you and your family.

“ My heart is saddened, but I can see that smile. I think the most beautiful people are the ones who went through the toughest situations in life but still manage to keep a smile on their face especially when they have a bright personality to go along with the smile. A many of days we laughed and walked the basement of City Hall. I'm praying for your children, grandchildren and mom. I will miss you my friend.

“ When I became a nurse it was because I wanted to make the world a better place. If lucky enough one patient at a time. But Jacqueline made me a better nurse. Her kind, strong, fun spirit brought so much light to everyone who cared for her. She fought with grace, dignity and spunk. We became and still are "Team Palmer". Love you like a sister Jacqueline. I pray for peace and comfort for all who knew and loved her. Now she is our angel. Until we meet again....
