“ When we weren't busy playing ball or running the streets, he brought me to his table where his mother fed me like I was on of her own. I'm ashamed I never sought him out as an adult, but Ricky was my friend, once, and I miss him now. Rest.

“ To The Bard Family,

James, Tiffany, Monica, Rodney, Angela, Vickie, Mark, and Family

My most sincere prayers and condolences are tremendously extended to all of you.

*Ricky, as I will always remember him, as a wonderful, athletic, vigorous, loving and extremely handsome cousin full of vitality.
When Dad would take he and I to school at Northwestern, my friends would always talk about how FINE he was with great emphasis of the word!!! I will truly miss the yearly July calls to say “Happy Birthday, Cuz”! And as I would embrace extensively the same acknowledgement on his birthday. It brings me such joy of fond and wonderful memories of how the four (4) “July” family members would honor and respond to one another’s special birthday!!! Mine July 16, Henry Junior 17, Aunt Rose 18, and of course Ricky’s July 21!!!*

Ricky will be greatly missed but knowing he is no longer in discomfort, distress, nor concerns with the many troubles of this world, for he is now comforted in the arms of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.....

“We are confident, yes, well pleased rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord.”

II Corinthians 5:8 NKJV

With deepest sympathy, May God’s love heal your sorrow, and May His peace replace your heartache with loving memories....

With all my love,

Your Cuz

“ I'm going to miss you dad. It brings me comfort knowing you are finally free and happy. I'm going to miss our corny joking around. I have pics and I can hear your voice on my voice mail from time to time. I'll listen when I want to hear I love you from my dad. In everyone of them you ended with I love you honey. I love you daddy.
