Mr. James Percy Belk Jr. was born June 24, 1933 in Marianna, Arkansas, the son of James Percy Belk Sr. and Clemmie Smith. James was a resident of Flint, Michigan since 1952. He found work at Buick City, a division of General Motors Corporation in January of 1953. After moving to Flint, he was introduced to Ruby Lee Redwine. They were married in 1962 and to this union 5 children were born. James was a dedicated employee of General Motors, working two shifts if needed hardly missing a day. Lawrence E. Moon Funeral Home - December 11, 2023 at 09:10 AM

May The Lord Jesus Christ of Nazareth bless and comfort you and our family during this time of grief. Please accept our sincere condolences. Our deepest sympathies go out to you and the family. May God give you the comfort and peace that you seek and may the soul of my Dad's brother-in-law, Uncle James, rest in peace. Lots of hugs go out to each of you. This was such a beautiful tribute and home-going service for your dad, granddad and great-grandad that you'll treasure forever. "Almighty God, we rejoice in your promise of love, joy and peace. In your mercy turn the darkness of death into the dawn of new life, and the sorrow of parting into the joy of heaven; through our Savior Jesus Christ, who died, rose again and lives for evermore. Amen."

“ Mr. Belk, tell Mrs. Belk I love her and miss her. Mr. Belk I have to say to you job well done. You and your family growing up in the seventies and eighties were the portrait of what a family is supposed to be like. You had a great wife, and you raised wonderful children, God has prepared a place for you.

We have wonderful childhood and adult memories because of you and Mama. I am going to miss you sharing stories of your childhood. Stories about your brothers and sisters growing up in Arkansas. And stories about working for GM. You told them in such a funny way. I will miss sitting at the kitchen table listening and laughing. I will cherish those times as I cherish you and Mama. Princess*

Uncle James will be missed so much and he will forever remain in our hearts. Prayed for comfort for my cousins at the passing on of their dad they loved so much. 1 Peter 3:7 ... husbands and wives “together receive the gift of life”. John 16:22 ... Now is your time of grief, but I will see you again and you will rejoice, and no one will take away your joy.” I love my Uncle James and Aunt Ruby and I love you all.
