“ Jimmy.
How can I say Goodbye? how Bless I was to be a part of your life. I saw on Saturday you had read your daily word,for the last time.I know you are in your Heavenly home;
so many co-workers new friends said so many kind words about you. you never complain or ask for help. you went to work everyday.Now I can say goodbye because your address has change,

Love,Ann

“ I became acquainted with James when he began to visit our offices quite often. He never met any strangers and kept us all laughing from the time he walked in the door until he left. I was saddened to learn of his passing, but I know God makes no mistake and we must accept his will. May God bless the family and may you continue to lean and depend on him who is able to strengthen you during this time of sorrow.
