“ Mr. James Monroe Harris Jr.

October 09, 2023 at 07:02 AM

“ I was on facebook today wishing James a Happy Birthday. I didn't know he had passed until I saw a post on his wall that said RIP. Last year I had found James on FB after not talking to him in over 12 years.

When he managed the Babbage's in Battle Creek I was one of his Sales Associates. He taught me a lot about sales and management, more importantly he became a great friend.

To the family and friends of James, my condolences on his passing.

“ I believe I adopted the Harris family as my godfamily at a young age. We were closer than your average neighbors...we shared days, events and vacations together.

When it was time to graduate from high school James Harris aka June took me under his wing and introduced me to the college lifestyle in Kalamazoo, MI. His home was my home, his food was my food and his friends were my friends. He cared for me, looked out for me and he had my back in times of need. He always made me laugh and would lecture me about studying and boys like any incredible big brother would do.

James was a confident, intelligent, funny, loving, caring, leader with a notable posture and an unforgettable smile. When I think about my godbrother I see an amazing gift from God. I am grateful to have been blessed with your presence Mr. James Harris. Today we celebrate your life. I love you big brother June!! ?

“ To my family:
My heart is with you while you're missing James. You know that we had a special relationship with each other. I will never forget our last family reunion when he was determined to attend church with my parents. He called me afterwards and was so fascinated with how big the church was and shared with me how much he enjoyed it. I think the over-sized fish tank throughout the church and the Father's Day Event at Texas Stadium really amazed him.

We are going to miss James making us laugh at our family reunions and I know that he will be looking down on us saying "Keep our families together". I will miss his calls and texts on holidays, but will cherish and remember the times we shared with our family.

I loved him and I love all of you,

“ To The Harris / Eldridge Family:

The sorrow of the faithful is not that of permanent loss, but the tender sense of sadness that comes in saying good-bye for now to someone we love. May today's sorrow give way to the peace and comfort of God's love.

The most memorable time James and I had was when I told him I gave my life to "GOD" and I was called to minister... "boy you should have seen the look on his face". That was the first time I've ever known him to be speechless.. Anyone that knows him know that is hard to do...LOL
