James "Justice Allah" Jackson was born on August 9, 1978 in Flint, Michigan, to Sharon Bond and William Jackson. He passed on November 26, 2015 in Atlanta, Georgia, where he lived for nearly 18 years. James was baptized at an early age at North Central Church of Christ. He attended Flint Schools, and at an early age developed a passion for sports and music.

In high school, James loved football and was a four year player at Flint Southwestern Academy. His speed and elusiveness allowed him to play Running Back and despite his small stature, Nose Tackle. Growing up, he loved Al Bundy from the TV show "Married With Children" and similar to him, his claim to fame was that he once scored 3 Touchdown's in one game. After graduating high school in 1996, he briefly attended Eastern Michigan University before relocating to Atlanta, Georgia.

In his adult life, James became a member of The Five Percent Nation, and would take on the name Justice Allah. Justice was very passionate about his beliefs, and instilled these values in his sons, Justice Akhil (13) and Amir (6). He was a devoted and committed father, and indebted his life to instill this knowledge and discipline in his sons lives.

Justice loved the Arts, and there was never a dull moment whether with family or friends. His diverse knowledge base allowed him the opportunity to work with various musicians, assist with movie production, work in the restaurant industry, perform home renovations/inspections, develop mobile apps (Q-It), and help launch websites (H2STV, Medicated TV). He was an amazing son, grandson, father, brother, nephew, cousin and friend. He will truly be missed by those who knew and loved him.

He leaves to cherish his memory: 2 sons, Justice Akhil Jackson and Amir Naim Jackson; mother, Sharon Bond; father, William (Stacey) Jackson; 2 brothers, Jerron (Chanel) Jackson and Jonathan Barrett (Stephanie) Jackson; 2 sisters, Courtni (Chester) Hawkins and Crandalyn Jackson; grandparents, James Herman and Ola June Bond; special loved ones, Taurus Ligon and Taabia Bowles; a host of uncles, aunts, cousins other relatives and friends.

Justice was preceded in death by his grandparents, James Jackson, Sr. and Eula Jackson and very special aunt, Ramona Talifarro.

“ Thank you Justice for everything that you have done for my family over the past 10 years, especially these last 2 when my God has been away. When I had no one else to turn to, you stepped in and took care of everything for me. Not that many people would step in and take care of another man's family and for that I will forever be grateful for the love and generosity that you had for us. Thank you for always being there and the continued support that you have given your brother from day one. Divine will definitely make sure to look out for your seeds! You will be missed always and forever

- Peace God,

“ Dear heart I will cherish every memory that I have of you. You were the best father, and mentor any son could look up to. Everytime i'd visit the ATL there you would be with your son, and in 2011 I met your baby boy Amir. You got a real kick @ how I teased you about his hair texture tee-hee. I saw the proud look in your eyes when you presented me my own Grandson Ahkil 13 years ago when you and my daughter Tauris (Tai) were young bucks ready to take on the world with your's, and God's new creation . I loved you then, and I will love you 4ever through your sons. I believe in my heart you will watch over them with the eyes of God's help they will be fine ! The last time I spoke to Ahkil while attending Mashaun's graduation in Florida he told me he could hardly wait for you and him to get your new house , so he could play basket ball with you his DAD ! Good bye our beautiful soft brown eyes Justice a real man who cherished his boys to the very end !

Peace my son

“ Sometimes you just get lost for words when someone so loved by so many people is taken so suddenly, however when you think about the angel we now have watching over the family, protecting and enclosing the surroundings in which he loved you can't help but feel honored to have known him.
