“ I'm sorry 😞 to hear of your loss. James was the kindest man I've known for years. He was definitely a God fearing and family man. Hard worker, integrity just to name a few. He will sadly missed. My prayers are with you always. May u find comfort in knowing that he was loved and respected by many.

“ Family just want you to know I grieve with you in the transition of James. My thoughts went back to when I was a teenager and James invited me to choir rehearsal at the original Cannan church. He would pick me up, off we would go to the church and enter from the parking lot thru the side door. There James sang in the Inspiritional Choir with such singers like Harold Vaughn, Janice Tucker, Leon Martin, Esther Taylor, and Brenda Floyd as the musician. What a time those rehearsals were even turning into praise on occasion. James had a deep love for music. He even played the role of the devil in the Old Ship of Zion play for the Great Lakes District. I have wonderful memories of James and George coming to visit at our home when we were first married. I have beautiful memories of my cousin in knowing that he love the Lord, his church, and his family. Be encouraged by the life he lived. Prayers for the entire family. Love You.
