“ My condolences to Andre Moore and the rest of the family in the transition of James Moore. James was a close friend and comrade over the years and we shared a common bond from our initial working years at AC Spark Plug (Now Delphi East) Division of General Motors. As our careers took us to different divisions of GM, the friendship continued and morphed to our commitment to be converted to Christianity and our mutual membership at New Jerusalem Baptist Church. Through all this we were blessed with a camaraderie that spanned 45 years of ongoing communication, prayerful support and constant sharing of life's situations as God progressed us through life. That friendship help as children were being raised and cared for.

May the great memories of James Moore's commitment to his family, his winsome smile and friendly nature, help to others and work for Christ and serve to comfort your family at this time of bereavement. From years of sharing our life's victories and vicissitudes, we know that James has transitioned to be with the Lord and for that we rejoice and smile to cherish his memory.
