“ In 1984.. Mr Ragston and his than spouse helped me and my than husband AL Hatter grow in our 33 years of marriage. He as his eela with 1st wife, Frances was a fine example to myself and his nephew AL Hatter. I wish I'd had spoken to him more recently to let him know how much we respected him and love him for taking out time with two young people like myself and my husband. I have nothing but Good Memories of Mr. James Ragston. Sleep on in peace. Your niece, Evelyn Hatter ❤️💋

“ The loss of Jim was a sad day, but all who knew Jim knows exactly where he is now. Praise God for our time with him ! Worked with Jim as machinist at Buick and he was a good one. When he had idle time, he always had his bible open or was practicing singing for the next service. Always has a big smile and kind to everyone ! Prayers for his family... Mike McNamara (Mac)
