“ Jim and I shared many wonderful times back in Detroit & Royal Oak. I've known Jim since 1984. When my oldest brother passed away in Nov. 2013 I had to come back to Detroit. Jim was kind enough to cook a delightful Thanksgiving dinner for the two of us since the rest of my family had already passed away. We got to break bread together. That was very special for me. That was the last time I had the pleasure of seeing my brother Jim. I'll miss his wonderful laugh and his beautiful smile. I'm at peace knowing he's with Michael once again. I'm the one who encouraged Jim to get out there and begin dating again and he met Michael. It was so wonderful seeing both of them in church together. So many fond memories. Love IS Love! My thoughts and prayers go out to the family.
