I knew James as a young boy that lived across the street and was friends with my son Dayton Black. He was always polite, kind, a good kid. Seeing this hit me hard about James. The whole family were very special neighbors. I'm so sorry to be reading this but wanted the family know how much they touched my heart and the Black family from across the street in Dale City, VA. Sending love and hugs, From Dayton's Mom, Shelby Bange

I went to Godwin MS and Garfield HS with James. What I remember most about him was his kindness. He was above all kind. And crazy smart :). I am in shock and so, so sorry.

I used to dog sit for his dog Creed and always wondered why I never heard from him. I'm sorry for your loss. He seemed like a very nice and caring man and loved his dog. If you see Creed, tell his favorite dog sitter said hi. 😊
