“ I remember the last time I had the honor of visiting Sis. Jamie Brown, unfortunately it was in the hospital room but even then, she had her smile and simply asked, "Please pray for me, and my family" Sis. Brown was always so kind, and had a smile on her face. My wife & I's prayers are with you all, and we will always remember you, Sis. Jamie for your smile and positive attitude.

God Bless You All,

Bro. Kyle & Sis. Cara Maddox

“ Dear Brown Family and Friends,
I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one, and offer you my sincere condolences. Many have found comfort and hope in knowing that the Bible assures us: “Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit.” (Psalm 34:18) God’s holy spirit, or active force, can equip you with “power beyond what is normal” to go from one day to the next.(2 Corinthians 4:7) It is my sincere hope that this gives you a measure of solace in this most difficult time. My family wishes you and yours peace.
