“ I don't even know where to start!!! My heart hurts so much Mickie.. I didn't get a chance to say how much I love you, how we had all those fun and crazy times growing up, how you would fix my hair when it was jacked up. We had not seen each other in a long time but you was and always will have a special place in my heart!! We was real friends.. I wish I could have felt the things you was feeling.. I wish I had you here but God says No and I will be okay with that. Until we meet again you will remain in my heart and I love and appreciate the time God gave me you. I will keep the Mcbride family in prayer and prayers for her babies.. Mickie was really loved and thought of.

“ To my dearest cousin/lil sister,

I wish we would have spent more time together and had more time to share now. But for reasons unknown to us God has called you home. Even though I want to be sad right now, I can't help but feel lucky because I know I have another angel watching over me. May you rest in heaven and know you will always be loved and your kids will be taken care of as if you were here.

Love always,

Larry T. McBride Sr.

“ I remember playing with Mickie when we lived next door to one another. In high school she was in my class and we use to talk a lot. Jamika's home going has really touched my heart. I will be praying for her children and family.
