“ It seems like yesterday we have just spoken to you and now you are gone. We can't believe this terrible loss and emptiness in our hearts. You are now in a better place. Just keep looking down on us and know that we will see you again. We will love and miss you always! May God Bless your family from the pain of losing You. You were God sent. Rest in peace.

“ My condolences to the family. When someone you love dies it can be very difficult to contemplate not seeing them again. Jesus assures us at John 11:25 that he that exercises faith in him although he dies will come to life. I hope this comforts you in your grief.

“ It is with great sadness that I write this tribute to the Brown family. I can still remember seeing Choo every now and again at service at Antioch sitting with Ms. Christine. At this time we must trust and take comfort in the fact that God is sovereign and does not make any mistakes. I pray that angels carry you through this time of transition, as you find rest in the assurance that we will see Choo again very soon in glory. Abundant blessings and love to you all.

“ Bill and family we extend our heartfelt sympathy to you during this difficult time. We know Choo was very much loved and spoiled his entire life. The Lord has called him home to be with Lucille again. Weeping may endure for a night but JOY comes in the morning. We are praying for the family.
