Ms. Janice Marie Fitzpatrick leaves to reminisce and cherish her memory: daughter, Reshia (Scheryle) Fields; 2 grandchildren, Azaria Fitzpatrick and Zakeer Fitzpatrick; 2 sisters, LaShawn Deloney of Flint and Carolyn “Faye”

Whaley of Detroit, MI; 2 brothers, Eddie Fitzpatrick and Ray Lee, both of Flint; a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and friend including best friend, Tracy Batson.

“ I didn't meet Janice as a kid but, I can say we did 'grow up together'.
I met her after moving near her parents and not many years later she moved across the street from me.
We were two young women raising daughters working at General Motors, doing the best we could.
We would of course see each other often, out in the yard or sitting on the porch. When we wanted home projects done we would negotiate with the worker to get a deal if they did both of ours.
As time went on she somehow started working at Buick where I was already.
It seems like in a short time we went from young ladies to 'middle age' women, experiencing retirement, births, deaths, graduations and health concerns. Janice would often express her pride in others accomplishments. She will be remembered fondly, lovingly as a person who cared for and about others. Some will recall how particular she was about how her grass was cut.
I will miss seeing her. She was a person whose laughter came from deep within with a ready smile.
I know that she truly loved her whole family. Of course her grandchildren held an extra special place in her heart.

*Rest well, neighbor.
