“ We are truly sorry to hear of your loss. Our condolences go out to you and your family. Often during difficult times people turn to the bible. Two scriptures that come to mind are Revelations 21:3,4 and Acts 24:15. I hope that these are comforting to you.

“ To the Terry-Thompson Family, I'm so sorry to hear the loss of Miss Janie, she was such a sweetheart, she was my rock back during my time of need in helping me take care of my grandmother she was the only one my grandmother looked forward to seeing everyday, she knew how to put a smile on her face and get her going, Janie had that kind and loving way about her, even when she was sick, she still tried to help others. She will be missed. God Speed Miss Janie, Luv you much, Lyz & Maxi.

“ Dearest Thompson Family, Please accept my deepest sympathies at this time of loss. I wish to encourage you with a very comforting thought found in the Bible at Isaiah 25:8. Its a promise that God will soon fulfill when he "swallows up death forever"...and also as Rev.21:1 promises to make "a new heavens and a new earth"... no doubt these conditions will be full of love and joy. thank you.

Very Sincerely, Tasha Brooks
