“ When I went to work at Heritage Manor, Mama J took an unsure receptionist under her wing and guided me into a more confident receptionist and into a better Christian. I learned how to stand my ground in love. She was a very special lady. I was so happy when Mama J and Loretta came to my daughter's wedding out in New Lothrop. She will be missed by so many people. She touched so many many people.

“ I met Mrs J for the first time in 1998 at Heritage Manor. During my years working at Heritage Manor, Mrs J treated me like family. In 2003, Mrs J brought her famous BBQ ribs to my son, Neil's graduation party. Family and friends who attended that party still rave about her ribs to this day. What a generous woman she was! She will be dearly missed by all.
