“ We were saddened to hear of your loss. Please know how very sorry we are. When the Lord calls our loved ones home, he leaves a gift of memories in exchange. We are here and will treasure the memory of Jannie always. We hold the family safe in our hearts at this time of sadness. We cannot take away your pain, but we can listen if you wish to talk about it. Hold on to your memories and let them guide you during this time.

“ I am so sorry to hear about Cousin Janie's death. I wish I could be there with the family but unfortunately won't be able to make her homegoing services. But I wanted you all to know that you are in my thoughts and prayers and have my deepest condolences.

Those we love never die, for as long as we live and remember, they are with us (by Helen Steiner Rice).
