“ Our condolences go out to you and your family. We are truly sorry to hear of your loss. Often during these difficult times people turn to the bible. Two scriptures that come to mind are Revelations 21:3,4 and Acts 24:15. I hope that these are comforting to you.

“ January-

I was so sad to hear of your passing. I didn't know you very long, but I know you were super excited for the changes happening in your life... You once told me that God had plans for you.. You were so excited and ready to start the Dental Program. I was thankful that I was able to be a part of that positive part of your life.. You were always smiling, always so very nice... I pray that you are in a better place with God watching over you.. God bless January's family in their time of grief, especially her young children.. It was a privledge knowing her, even if for a just a short time..

“ Well ma'am I'm really at a loss for words and you know that's really unusual for me. I would have to say that your first day of class was the best, you trying to crawl under your desk to answer your phone was hilarious, and you kept us in stitches with your lively personality. I wish we had gotten to know you better there just wasn't enough time. Rest in peace my sister, now you can twirl those locks as much as you want to!!!

“ I only have good & funny things to say about January. She kept me laughing from her very first day of class. I truly will miss the energy she had. She was always so proud of herself with every test or clinical skill test she passed. And her telling me she she loved me & how God brought me into her life. I know she had struggles and I'm glad I could have made joy in her life the short time I knew her. But I know she in heaven now playing with her hair.
