Colen, Jr. and Patricia A. Euwing. Jayna accepted Christ at an early age and during her young adulthood, she made her church home at the Full Gospel Christian Church. Jayna attended Flint Public Schools, graduating from Southwestern Academy High School. She was employed at Kroger Supermarket, Inc. As a young woman, Jayna also loved to volunteer with the Autism Society Chapter of Flint. She was witty and fun loving, once you met her, you were her friend forever. Jayna loved watching movies, gathering with family and friends, playing cards, games and texting. She was a loving and devoted mother to her only child, Ayana. Jayna loved communicating and inspiring others; that was her gift. She was a tenacious and determined young lady. Jayna also loved music, writing poems and shopping. Through it all Jayna kept her smile and humor. She will always be our hero. Ms. Jayna M. Euwing leaves to cherish her memory: precious daughter, Ayana; father, Herbert F. (Wendy) Colen, Jr.; grandmother, Henrietta
