“ My deepest condolences to the family. Growing up I lived across the street and spent countless of hours in her home and she always greeted me with so much warmth and compassion. I've eaten at her table and ran through her house as a kid. Mrs. Jean will be truly missed. May Allah(swt) (God) ease the burden of the family. (Man).

“ I met Jean through my Sister in law Laurie and from the minute I met her she was always the sweetest lady and no matter how much time went away without us seeing each other when we did we would pick up just as if it was yesterday. I will miss the smile from this loving lady. My prayers are with the family at this difficult time.

“ I remember riding with nanny to attend a church service in my early 20s. During this time I was on my own personal spiritual journey , I asked her “Nanny what keeps you so faithful and nurturing toward others”? (Her spirit was always so upbeat and positive and I wanted that) She responded “Humility”. That was the only thing she said as she instantly began praying for me. She prayed for god to open my heart, mind, spirit to love and grace that only he can bring. Today that is one of my greatest attributes and what I look for in individuals I surround myself around. Nanny your words are forever ingrained in me , you will be truly loved and missed.
With all the love ,
Granddaughter Fallina

“ I remember visiting Michigan and always staying at nannies house. It always felt like home to me. One particular time I guess I couldn't sleep and I made my way into her room and slept on the floor. I woke up with a pillow under my head and a blanket. She was always so caring. I love and miss you nanny

“ Aunt Jeanie always was so sweet and I never heard her raise her voice even when she was upset about something. I remember when I was in Atlanta visiting one time and wanted to go to the big mall there. She heard me asking different younger cousins that lived in Atlanta to take me and they all acted like they were too busy. That next morning, Aunt Jeanie told me she was taking me to the mall and we spent the day together. We had a wonderful time and I will always cherish the time we spent together. She will be truly missed, but never forgotten. My deepest sympathy to her children and family. Love, Crecendra Brown & Family!
