“ Jean was extraordinary when it came to the geriatric population! She was an educator and was patient with me when I required her expertise to write about issues like Alzheimer's Disease.

She was full of love, compassion, and laughter. As a result, we became great friends! She was loyal, supportive and understood different personas like mine.

Her womanhood and professional stature was second to none. But her perfect smile was one of the greatest gifts she shared with me as well as many others with whom she reached out to touch with sincerity!

With Love,
Lora Thom
