Jeff attended Flint Community Schools, Dewey Elementary, Whittier Junior High School, Flint Central, Flint Northwestern, and Schools of Choice High Schools, later receiving his GED. He was introduced to Christ at an early age and attended Pasadena Church of God. Jeffery was a people person, he never met a stranger. He enjoyed gathering with friends and family. Jeffery also enjoyed listening to music (rap and the oldies), playing Domino's, video games, cards and watching movies. He enjoyed going to Cedar Point, car shows and traveling when he could. Jeff will be remembered for his laughter, his ability to have a good time wherever he went and for aiding others whenever he could. Jeffery enjoyed dancing in his early years and was given the nickname “Snake”, because of his pop-lock dance moves.
