“ We would like to express our deepest condolences to Mrs. Currie and the The Currie Family. We are truly saddened by the loss of Jeff. We saw him this summer when we were home and we will keep that memory of the last time we saw him. He always came to my mother's house whenever we came home and it was always a good time. May God bless and keep you all. God never puts more on you than you can bear so put your hand in His and He will guide you through this turbulent time. You are all in our prayers.

“ To Ms Anna and the Currie family I extend warm condolences to you and the E Julia St. family. I pray that God grant you strength and peace as you mourn the loss of your son and brother- Jeffery. Although he was a family friend we think of him as family. We never missed a trip to Michigan without spending time with Clamp. Our hearts are deeply saddened by his passing. May God continue to embrace you and our hearts and prayers are with you all the way from Edmondson, Arkansas, your extended family Fay and Punkin.

“ My Man Clamp Hate to see you go we worked together at Genesee Packaging and we kicked at lunch time and after work sometime weekends. Clamp was cool with me I got to know him better when I was working with him we had alot of fun he was cool. Every time I would see him after I came home from Kansas City he would call me Bronco real loud that's what he called me at Genesee Packageing . I am praying for miss Currie she have buried both of her sons. Bull and Kevin my homies I pray that God help you all through Jesus Christ he is able and ready to take you through just lean on him .. Check you out Clamp!

“ Dear Currie Family and Friends,
I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one, and offer you my sincere condolences. Many have found comfort and hope in knowing that the Bible assures us: “Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit.” (Psalm 34:18) God’s holy spirit, or active force, can equip you with “power beyond what is normal” to go from one day to the next.(2 Corinthians 4:7) It is my sincere hope that this gives you a measure of solace in this most difficult time. My family wishes you and yours peace.
