“ Mrs. Turner was my third grade teacher. I vividly remember how she challenged me to be the best I could be and not settle for being average. She had high expectations of me and demanded that I put forth 100% effort in everything that I did. Mrs. Turner believed in education and tried to instill in all of her students a love for learning. I am grateful that God ordered our paths to intersect. Truly I will always remember Mrs. Turner and thank God for her.

I extend my sincere condolences to the family and pray that God will give you the peace that surpasses all understanding.

Stephan Welch-

Mrs Turner was one of my toughest elementary school teacher. She refused to accept anything but the best. She made me learn how to raise my expectations. I thanked her on many occasions. I'm going to miss her. May she rest in peace.
