Liz Jackson (cousin) The thing I will miss and remember most about Jeremy is that he was always caring and though we annoyed him all the time while we were younger, he was never cruel and he took the time to help when we needed it and always had a kind word. The world is a harsher place for having lost him. He will be wholly missed. Autumn Neugent (friend) I can only imagine. But, Oh wow! Jeremy, you've always felt like home. Like comfort food to the soul. Your peace brings me peace my friend. Until we meet again, much love Autumn Neugent... Monique Wright, (cousin) My fondest moments with my cousin I remember us waking up on the farm and aunt San tell us to clean up and Jeremy and Stephanie just thought it was the worst. My cousin loved me like his own. I'm forever his Moozer...India Carter (cousin), my fondest memories of Jeremy is when we were kids at the farm, Jeremy and Darnell wouldn't let us go downstairs to the basement to play. We didn't know what was down there that we couldn't be a part of. We just wanted to get down there. Syreeta (cousin) Memory I have of Jeremy when we were all on Grandma's Farm where teenagers he was about 17 and we had the BB gun and he told I believe it was Marcus or Darnell to shoot him in the butt but make sure they had his wallet well they missed his wallet and he was hollering LOL... Aunt Cheryl, Jeremy was a smart, kind, respectful, Gentle Giant with an infectious laugh. He is loved and truly will be missed. Love, Aunt Cheryl... Donta Bill Bob Brown (Cousin) Jeremy would always encourage me to keep pushing with what I wanted to do. He never gave any negative words and always made sure he tied God in. Jeremy will be missed dearly. Rest In Peace. Christine (friend) Your beautiful boy at prom. ♥ All my love and prayers are for you mama Jones. Thank you for sharing him with us for 41 years. I know I will never find anyone even close to him. He was my souls mate and I will wait til I see him again because obviously nobody could fill his shoes. You raised an Angel. ♥ Always here for you....Toni Lewis, (cousin) Gee Moe, We have so many memories of us as kids to adults that I will cherish close to my heart. You could just light up the room with your laughter, jokes and smile. I will miss you so much. This not our goodbye it's see you later.. Love you Cousin. Angelica (Friend) "Beauty for ashes, strength for fear, gladness for mourning, peace for despair. " Mary Latrice (Godsister) You are an amazing big brother.. the bond and love we have is unbreakable!... blood couldn't make us closer! Thank you.. Nicholas and I miss you already! Latyna (cousin) Jeremy was chosen as my son's godfather and his namesake because he was an honorable person. My son and I are heartbroken. Much love to my cousin. Lexus (cousin) Jeremy was "big guy" to me...big guy was my biggest critic & motivator when it came to my music. he was willing to listen to anything & always told me "get out your head lex & put some stank on it". I'll keep that with me for ever & always play like big guy is watching. Josh (cousin) He gave me a place start my marriage and start my family while motivating me to want more than just what I see. Chris (cousin) Heaven has another Angel. Jeremy was more like a big brother than a cousin. He was the first born of our generation with me being the second oldest being 11 months younger than him. Growing up, we were inseparable when we were together. Every family holiday, we couldn't wait to get together with all of our cousins. All the cousins are so close, you'd think we were siblings. Jeremy was a mantle piece and a pillar for our generation and our entire family. His absence will be felt and will echo like waves on the shore but so will his love for his family and how he loved life to the fullest. Stephanie aka Mina Ramey (because little sister has many names) I remember always being referred to as "Oh, hey! You're AJ's baby sister!" (For a while, that's actually how I would introduce myself to people.) It used to make me so irate, but when I got older, I learned to wear that title with pride. To be associated with such a phenomenal human being became a badge of honor for me. Jeremy was someone that I always aspired to be like... but I can still hear him now. "Just be cool like you, sis. You don't need to be me." Jeremy was my chill, my zen, the one that kept the powder keg from going off. We were definitely opposites, but he helped keep the balance. I'll always appreciate the patience he showed his firecracker of a baby sister and the wisdom he passed to me as well. I promise to keep making you proud, kid. You embodied and are a reflection of the best of what I am and ever hope to be. YOU, my son, were MY Superman. Words cannot express the depth of feeling I have for you being taken from me. I will eternally be in your debt for all you were and forever will be to me. Sleep in heavenly peace. Love Ma

“ I wish I had more pictures taken with Jeremy but this one shares a memory of the beginning of a lifelong friendship and an unbreakable bond. I knew Jeremy before he attended Kearsley High School. When I wasn't asked to my senior prom by anyone Jeremy A. Jones escorted me. We've kept in contact through the years and have grown a beautiful friendship. One of my favorite memories was the time I went to Wisconsin, via train, to help Jeremy move back to Michigan. Jeremy was driving and had drank 2 red bulls when "Let's stay together" came on. Jeremy sang to me adding his own twist and facial expressions...I will hold this memory and so many more dear to my heart. Jeremy had talked about coming "home" either this week or last and said he was "kidnapping" me this time. We will meet again someday. Until then I will keep his memory alive and close to my heart.

“ How do you put something like this to words? here goes. Jeremy A. Jones... you immediately felt like home when we met. Like steak and mashed potatoes... you were comfort food to the soul. In high school, You'd call me and sing me songs... oh, I miss those calls. Our friendship never missed a beat. Wether it'd been a year or a minute. Music. Food. Our shared passions... Jeremy has always been a natural caregiver. A source of love and light. My heart breaks for those that have lost a piece of themselves. Know that he is ALWAYS with us! Say his name. Tell the stories. Love yourself as much as he loved you. Live the life he wanted for you! Make him proud. He held so many of us together. Let's hold on FOR HIM!!!

I've been in shock, quiet ... I didn't want to talk about it. I didn't want to make it real. Writing this has made it real. I'm breaking. I'm a wreck. Please hold each other up. I love you Mr. Jones.
