“ Mommy hey my girl. This is hard mommy. I'm trying my best to be strong but I'm breaking daily. Mommy I miss you so much it hurts my soul. I am nauseous everyday and I can't sleep. Mommy we talked everyday and now nothing 😞. I don't know how to move forward honestly I'm still stuck on June 27th the day I received the call to rush home. I feel like I'm in the twilight zone. Mommy I need a little strength down here please. I love you Queen until we meet again continue to watch over all of us. We all are struggling. You left your mark mommy. 😞😞😞😞😞💔

“ To Our / My Dear Beloved Family of Mrs. Jeri Cureton and Family , My deepest condolences and heartfelt sympathy and empathy in the loss of your Dear Sister , mother , auntie , cousins and friends . May Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ will continue His grace and mercy with His precious Loving , Caring , and Trusting arms wrapped around "You" as your transition has and is taken place . As memories of growing up as we fellowship @ Nelson Chapel House of Prayer Church of Trinity , I'm so reminded of treasured memories of 3rd Sunday's all day and eating at the church , with "Your" / Our "Paw-Paw" Daddy Nelson / Our Pastor 🙏😊🙏🙏 , choir rehearsal Saturdays having hot dogs and potato chips and those little blocks of vanilla ice cream 😊 which made it all worthwhile no matter how much Auntie Georgia got on our butts 🙏 . We love you and will miss you but Thank God for Jesus Christ He Loves you Best , Amen 🙏 Amen 🙏

“ Thinking about our childhood Days Jeri. This is saddening my heart to know that you're gone. The Bible said for to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Sleep on my friend, sleep on.
