“ Too:the Family sorry for yor lost. Celebrate The Fruit. The fruit that God our Father and Lord Jesus Christ. Have given you'll for these 64 years. Children, grand Children, neices, nephews, sisters, and brothers. And all that been through, throught out the years. Just remember where you come from, and let the Lord lead and guide you through these times. Love Cousin Phillip Kimble, and Family. Colossians 1:3-14.

“ May the family be comforted during this the time of Jerome's home going. He was one of many "Old neighborhood " (Jefferson Bryant and Northwestern) young men that inspired us in our youth.I know he will be missed!

“ As a friend of Donna growing up on Industrial Ave., I will never forget Jerome yelling from the front porch as one of the 'big brothers' on the block. He never missed anything that was going on, and was a good 'lookout' for my parents in the store (Harden's Grocery). Those were the good ol' days. I was sad to hear of his passing, and pray that the family will find peace in this time of grief. Much Love to you all
