“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event that it's called an enemy in the Bible at I Corinthians 15:26. But Jesus gave us a hope in the Bible at John 11:25: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." So, we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. Why can we say that? Because God has promised us this in the Bible at such scriptures as Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19, and Revelation 21:3-5. Isn't this good news? Please read these scriptures in your own Bible.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I am sure that you feel the same way we do. Death is just an old enemy that we all will meet eventually. But I found this scripture to be very comforting. It is found at Revelation 21:3,4. And it says:"With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: :Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples, And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. I hope this scripture will be as comforting to you as it was for me. It was comforting to know that soon people will be able to live on earth and not ever die. I have left my e-mail address if you would like to know more. Again I am so sorry for your loss.
