“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to the children; grandchildren; great-grandchildren and other family members in the loss of Uncle Jesse. I had known Uncle Jesse most of my life, after he married my mother's sister, Aunt Mattie. I was deeply saddened to know of his passing. The last time I saw him was at my brother Tyrone's memorial. I know that we all will miss him but, he will have no more suffering; heartache or pain where he is going. We are all just passing thru this place we are in and at a time appointed, only known by the Almighty God in Jesus Name, we are all called to leave this place we are in. It doesn't make it easy for those that are left in this place but, it should remind us all to pray and try with all our might to be pleasing to the Father of mankind. Please remember to pray one for another because, this place we are in is hard sometimes. But we must pray for each other to make it thru until we too are called home. I will be praying for this family we are in. Love you all, Cousin Verne

“ Jessie is one of the gentlest, friendliest, and helpful person I know. He never had an unkind word for anybody and was willing to do whatever was asked of him. He will be surely missed by all that knew him. We will miss his smile and gentle ways.

“ Deepest condolences to the children, grand children and the rest of the Stoudamire family. Cousin Jesse was a real stand up guy! We truly enjoyed the fellowships at the Family Reunions. He would not miss a single one and drove as far as Arkansas to be with his family. He always had an encouraging word for everyone, especially the youth. He was fun loving and serious at the same time. When he spoke, we listened. He will be truly missed. My God rest his soul.

“ Those of us who are left will remember the smile and sense of humor of Jessie. His sincere love of his children and family members. I will remember Mattie and Jessie taking me on their vacation to Idlewild every summer as a young adult. I will miss the times we had at picnics and other family gatherings. Love peace and happiness to all the family.

“ No words can make this time in your life any easier. But I hope you know that you have my deepest sympathy and that I am wishing you strength and peace of mind - during this difficult time.

Though the ones we love may leave life as we know it, in our hearts and our memories, our loved ones will always carry on.

Love, Cousin Cookie
