I remember falling down the steps and getting hurt really bad back in the 90s. Jimmy barely knew me at the time, but still came to my house and checked on me until I returned to work. Showed what type of person you were. Gone but not forgotten!

“ To the Family of the Late Jimmie Nicholson:

I was shocked at 12:59 afternoon on 10-27-17 to hear Jimmie had passed.

Anyone who knew Jimmie shared priceless moments with him. I'll certainly miss, one of Flint's Minority GM Giant(s). Jimmie helped countless people in our community with jobs, recommendations, housing, or just conversation. Jimmie had compassion for people, from all walks of life. However, he could agree to disagree with anyone.

Jimmie still had an 'Office' located in the community after retirement. Lol, However, if you knew him and needed him, you knew where to find him and his Office Hours! If I couldn't make his office hours, I kept him on speed dial.

Jimmie will always have a special place in my memory. He will truly be Missed. May God continue to Bless the Nicholson Family during your time of loss.
