“ I remember when he was about 4 or 5, he was at my house, and I was tying his shoes because my mom was about to pick him up. He said to me, "Auntie Keke, why is your hands making those noises?" I looked up and saw pure horror and confusion on his face. I told him, "it's just my long nails clicking together as I tie your shoes". We both laughed after that. He will always be my little Buga Bear. I'm beating myself up because I was not around more. My heart is so heavy. I love him so much.
