JoAnn Hardy was born December 18, 1955, in Flint, Michigan, the daughter of Shirley & Lariea Hardy Sr. She retired from General Motors Corporation. JoAnn enjoyed watching westerns, shopping and mentoring her son and grandson on being respectable men in this world. JoAnn also enjoyed the NBA and NFL playoffs. She would cook enough food for the holidays to make sure no one went hungry. JoAnn would give a stranger the shirt off her back. She was loved by all who knew her, always upbeat, thinking positively and above all situations willing to lend her advice to help others. Sometimes she could become very aggressive verbally when dealing with folks and their nonsense using corrective criticism. However, you could not know a better person in this world, always making sure everyone was happy. At times I remember talking on the phone with her for hours. I would just be talking I knew she was watching Matlock, Columbo or Murder she wrote, even Perry Mason, she would be watching while I was talking. I would tell her mom, I'm going to let you watch your shows; however, she would not want to get off the phone with me. So, I just kept on talking to her. Passing is God's will, it hurts but, I know she is in a better place. I know she is watching and happy that her two guys Jarone Sr. and Jr. are on the right page. Her legacy will live on thought us and her positive future we will create in her honor. We love You Mom. Rest peacefully we will be just fine, we will make you proud. Love your son Jarone Nash Sr. and Jr.

JoAnn Hardy leaves to cherish her memory: son, Jarone Nash Sr.; grandson, Jarone Nash Jr.; a host of nieces and nephews including, Jermaine Hardy, Antonio Hardy, Marvin Hardy Kevin Hardy, Taleeshia Hardy; and Ronnie Nash, Farod Hasan and Rakisha Hasan; father of her only child, Lila Handy; sisters, Jackie Hardy and Keely Smith, Tiara, Rashand, Chantrel Hardy Her grandson's mother, Nicole Paterson; her mother, Lois Paterson friends of Ms. Hardy whom she considered to be family, our extended family.
