Mrs. JoAnn Lucille Williams was born March 15, 1941 in Chicago, Illinois, the first child of nine (6 boys and 3 girls) born to Douglas Sr. and Olivia Alexander. For about 10 years, JoAnn attended school in Chicago, IL, then White Cloud, MI. When the family moved to Flint, Michigan, JoAnn attended and graduated from Flint Northern High School. After graduation she enrolled in Nursing School at Mott Community College where she became a Licensed Registered Nurse. At different times in her career, she was able to earn her living working for the following: Hurley Medical Center, St. Joseph Hospital, Flint Osteopathic Hospital and a few other medical facilities including University of Michigan Hospital in Ann Arbor, MI. JoAnn met and married Mr. Joseph Williams in 1975. Subsequently, she left hospital employment and became a Private Duty Nurse before retiring from nursing to become a full-time skilled Tailor and Seamstress with many clients throughout the Flint area.

JoAnn loved the Lord and proudly testified of living saved for more than 67 years of her life. She was a faithful member of the Holy Ghost Church Ministries and she loved her church family. JoAnn accepted her call as the Matriarch and spiritual head of the entire Alexander family. She made it her business to often inquire about your relationship with Christ. JoAnn was a brilliant Bible Scholar and daily, she would intercede in prayer for every member of the Alexander family and everyone with whom she came in contact. She had a giving, charitable spirit. JoAnn enjoyed sewing, artistic painting, quilting and crafts of all kinds. She was a formidable champion at playing Scrabble and Pick Up Sticks and invited all comers to a challenge. JoAnn was a very talented singer/songwriter and composer of a library of gospel songs she played on her electric piano. In 2002, JoAnn became a published author of a book, "Americana-Spiritual Illuminations compelling, thought provoking, collection of prose, poetry and essays she wrote and created between 1993-2000.
